

Dear First Baptist Church,
 We just wanted to let you know how very much Lynn's service meant to us. It was beautiful and so meaningful to have her back with her church family and friends. The food was delicious and appreciated. All the old friends serving and arranging it was so special. Doug, Paul, and Alex could not have done better. All of you were so kind and helpful through this sad, sad time for us. I felt like we had all come home. It was so comforting for us.

Our heartfelt thanks,

Steele, Morgan, and Stanifer families

Christ Is Risen!

CHRIST
 IS RISEN
 INDEED

Alleluia

There may not be a more highly anticipated event on the Christian calendar than Easter Sunday, and rightfully so! We dare to proclaim a resurrected Savior! To revel in such audacity, we would be wise to reflect on what resurrection means in our lives and could mean for our world.

We need resurrection. We were dead and have been made alive, anew in Christ. The world is war-torn and inundated with sickness and injustice. The world is dying, but God is reconciling by the power of resurrection in Christ passed down to us.

Celebrate this, the great day of Resurrection, but never lose sight of how badly we and the world need resurrection. Sing loud your alleluias. Witness the resurrection in your lives. Proclaim and work for resurrection in the world today. May God restore all that is dying, through Christ our Resurrected Lord. Amen and Alleluia!

New Book

Come hear Rev. Dr. Austin Carty present on his new book at 9:30 on Sunday, April 24, in the Fellowship Hall.

Copies of his book will be available for purchase. He will preach in worship following the presentation.

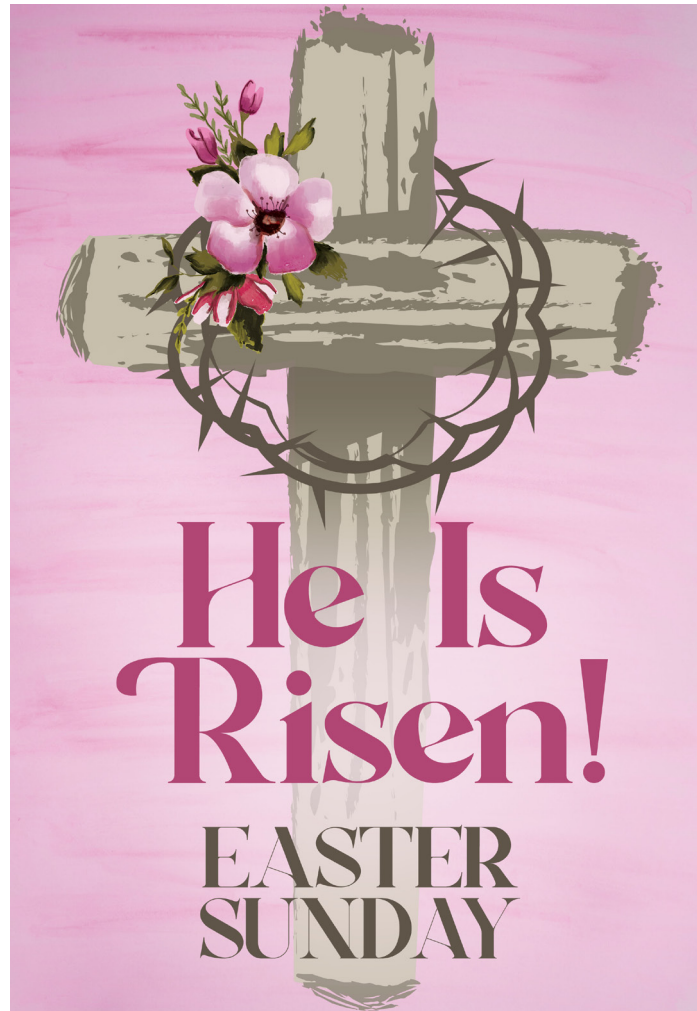

We are overjoyed to welcome back our friend and former pastor, Rev. Dr. Austin Carty, on Sunday, April 24! He has recently released a successful book on ministry and reading, and he will present on that book during the Sunday School hour that morning. Then, as he has done many other times, he will preach in our worship service. We hope you will join us as we welcome back Austin!
