

Stained Glass Saints

This week we remember Rebecca and Cecil Hayes. The following is excerpted from "In the Beginning" - the 75th Anniversary history of First Baptist Church:

Cecil Hayes was once referred to - by a small boy in the church - as "that white-haired preacher." He is not a preacher, but he does appear to enjoy his religion as much as any minister. Cecil came to Corbin in 1919, just out of army service in World War I. He soon started attending the old First Baptist Church on Ford Street. He met Rebecca Booker, who, in his words, "suited my fancy," and they married on February 21, 1922. Shortly afterward, they joined the church.

In her tenure at First Baptist, Mrs. Hayes was a member of the choir, church pianist, associate organist, Sunday School department director, president of the Grace Class, and a member of the WMU. In 1967, she and Cecil went on a mission trip to Key West, FL.

Mr. Hayes served as a deacon at First Baptist, with 25 years as chair. For more than 50 years, he was director of a Sunday School department; an additional 12 years were spent as Sunday School Director Cecil's most visible - and longest - contribution to the church was as a member of the Sanctuary Choir, where he sang in the Bass section for 70 years (Someone once said that Cecil had a voice like God's, only deeper!). Born in the 19th century, Cecil Hayes lived through the entire 20th century, passing in January of 2000 at the age of 104.

We give thanks to God for the legacy of Rebecca and Cecil Hayes, two of our Stained Glass Saints.

Save the Date

We will have a special called business meeting on Sunday, August 14, immediately following worship to vote on selling the Sojourn House and White Flag buildings to Corbin City Schools for the appraised value of $110,000. Please be available after the service that day to help us with this important business.

FBC Eastern Kentucky Flood Relief 2022

What an amazing response by an amazing community! While there is still much work left to be done, it is important to acknowledge the work of God in our community.

We give thanks for this entire community. We are thankful for Todd Tremaine and Mel Chandler who have coordinated and are driving the donations. We are thankful for Ruth Ann Davis, Keith Childers, and Bissells Inc for their generous donation of paper products and cleaning/hygiene supplies. We are thankful for Corbin Family Dental Care for their donation of dental supplies. We are thankful for Corbin Redhound Football Freshmen team for helping to load up our vehicles. We are thankful for Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of Georgia for their donation of 250 disaster response buckets. There are too many to name, but we are thankful for each and every person who donated items, money, and time. All this contributes to a severe need, and we can't do it without a supportive and generous community.

There is much work left to do, and more calls will go out. We know you will answer the call when it comes. Until then, thank you for responding to a need and for being our community. We give thanks to God for all of you.
