We are pleased to welcome Bob Fox as our guest preacher for August 18 and August 25. Bob, a native Kentuckian and a life-long part of the Baptist tradition, is a product of Jefferson County Public Schools, Centre College, Southern Seminary, and Vanderbilt University.

Prior to becoming Executive Coordinator for Cooperative Baptist Fellowship Kentucky, Bob was – for 16 years – pastor of Faith Baptist Church in Georgetown. Bob continues to reside in Georgetown with his wife, Janet. He and Janet are parents to two adult sons.

Bob enjoys all sorts of reading, with special interest in J.R.R. Tolkien, Frederick Buechner, and William Faulkner. He also enjoys basketball, running, golf, and all things Disney!

We welcome Bob to Corbin and to First Baptist.

Dear First Baptist Church Congregation,

Tom loved his church during our many years of membership. How fitting that some of the things he admired about First Baptist, generosity and a true sense of community, offered comfort to his family during his extended illness! Thank you for the many kindnesses you have shown- visits, cards, thoughts and prayers, meals, hugs and tears, and just being there for our family.

Thank you for the warm outpouring of Christian sympathy and support you have shown our family.

Donna Davis and family

Christian love and sympathy are extended to Steven and Kristin Gregory, Olivia, and Ryker in the passing of their loved-one, Ruth Graham.
