

A Presentation, Discussion, and Luncheon on Legacy and the Future of FBC: How to Help Our Church Thrive 50 Years from Now

Legacy is a weighty word. To think about our legacy forces us to think about our mortality and the kind of mark we wish to leave on this earth. When you think about legacy, what are your dreams for the world? How do you want to be remembered? What do you see in the future for our church, and what kind of impact can you have?

We have a unique opportunity for you as we consider both our individual legacies and the legacy of our great church. No matter who you are, there are steps you can take today that can have a long-lasting impact on the church. When you think about the next 50 years, do you have a desire to see your church thrive both now and 50 years from now? If this is piquing your interest, consider this opportunity to help shape the church's future.

On Saturday, February 26, at 11:00 am, we will welcome CBF Foundation President and Chief Development Officer, Shauw Chin Capps, who will lead us in a workshop to help us dream about our future and make decisions now that will help our church thrive for decades to come. She has great experience in working with churches and their finances, both in managing budgets now and equipping people to plan for the future. She will also serve as our guest preacher that Sunday.

If you are wondering what kind of impact you can have for our church in the future, and if you want to take steps to ensure its success, then this workshop is for you. We are fortunate to have so many people who have played a part in our church's success over the years. Without these faithful people, we would not have the kind of worshiping and serving community of faith as we have today. We believe you can make this possible for many who will come to call this church home, and we believe each of you can play a vital role. If you'd like to attend, please make your reservations by Monday, February 21. Call the office during regular office hours to RSVP.

Greeting and Call to Worship Alex Lockridge

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

And also with you.

The Holy Lord calls us to witness to God's divine splendor.

God touches our lips, and with our voices we praise God.

God, who is uplifted, stoops to hear us, cleansing our guilt and forgiving our sin.

We are here in response to God's calling. Let us worship God.

Hymn 1 Holy, Holy, Holy NICAEA

Confession of Sin Paul Sims

*Merciful God, You call, but we seldom hear. You beckon, yet we turn away.
Sin keeps us from responding to You, thwarting even our best efforts. Forgive our lack of attention to things that matter and restore our sense of Your priorities. Focus us on Your call to worship and service as we seek to follow after Jesus Christ.*

Act of Praise NETTLETON

*Hear the good news of salvation: Jesus died to show God's love.
Such great kindness! Such great mercy! Come to us from heaven above:
Jesus Christ, how much I love You! Jesus Christ, You save from sin!
How I love You! Look upon me. Love me still and cleanse within.*

Isaiah 6:1-8

Psalms 138 NICAEA

I give thanks, O Lord, with all my heart; before all gods I sing Your praise.

I bow down before Your holy temple and give thanks to Your name, for Your steadfast love and faithfulness;

for You have exalted Your name and Your word above everything.

On the day I called, You answered me; You increased the strength of my soul.

You, O Lord, will fulfill Your purpose for me;

Your steadfast love endures forever. REFRAIN

A Reading from the Gospels Jeremiah Banks

Once while Jesus was standing beside the lake of Gennesaret, and the crowd was pressing in on him to hear the word of God, he saw two boats there at the shore of the lake; the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets. He got into one of the boats, the one belonging to Simon, and asked him to put out a little way from the shore. Then he sat down and taught the crowds from the boat. When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and let down your nets for a catch." Simon answered, "Master, we have worked all night long but have caught nothing. Yet if you say so, I will let down the nets." When they had done this, they caught so many fish that their nets were beginning to break. So they signaled their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. But when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, "Go away from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man!" For he and all who were with him were amazed at the catch of fish that they had taken; and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Then Jesus said to Simon, "Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching people." When they had brought their boats to shore, they left everything and followed him.
