The Sixth Sunday after Pentecost
July 4, 2021

Organ Voluntary God of Grace and God of Glory setting by J. Wayne Kerr
*Set our feet on lofty places; gird our lives that they may be Armored with all Christ-like graces in the fight to set all free.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, that we fail not them nor Thee!*
- Harry Emerson Fosdick

Greeting and Call to Worship Alex Lockridge
*The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.
And also with you.*

*In God's realm: weakness becomes strength,
emptiness is filled to overflowing,
fear grows into courage,
the foolish learn wisdom,
the wise learn God's foolishness,
the great are humbled, and the humbled are lifted up.
In God's realm, all things are made whole.*

Hymn In Christ, Our Liberty ST. ANNE
*We bind ourselves in freedom's chains; the cross has set us free.
God's anvil forged each link with love, in Christ, our liberty.
Tho' creeds and laws imposed by pow'r may mock equality,
Our trust in Christ and Christ alone will keep our spirits free.
We have no need of priest or king to intercede for souls;
To live for Christ our covenant, to die to self our goal.
Now free in Christ it's time to stand, it's time to stand and cry
That freedom will not live beyond our willingness to die.*
- Lester Bork

stanzas 1, 2, and 3

Litany for Religious Liberty Paul Sims

*Baptists have never been party to oppression of conscience.
Our contention is not for more toleration, but for absolute liberty.
There is a wide difference between toleration and liberty.
Toleration implies that someone falsely claims the right to tolerate.
Toleration is a concession, while liberty is a right.
Toleration is a matter of expediency, while liberty is a matter of principle.
Toleration is a gift from people, while liberty is a gift from God.
It is the consistent and insistent contention of our Baptist people, always and everywhere, that religion must be forever voluntary and uncoerced.
And that is not the prerogative of any power, whether civil or ecclesiastical, to compel anyone to conform to any religious creed of worship.
God wants free worshipers and no other kind.*

- George W. Truett

Hymn Christ, Our Liberty NETTLETON

*Once a people came together bound by faith and vision new;
With the wonder of the gospel came God's gift of freedom true.
Freed to follow Christ in service, freed to worship and to seek;
Conscience guided by God's Spirit, God their sole authority.
Having suffered persecution, they now fought for freedom's cause,
That our faith be freely chosen, not defined by human laws.
We their children are entrusted with the dream they dared to dream;
Each one free to seek God's leading, in our Lord our unity.
In our freedom God commands us that we share God's gift of grace;
For the sake of God's creation, we seek vision for this day.
Like our fathers and our mothers, may we always faithful be;
In our dying find our living, bound to Christ, our Liberty.*

- Peggy Haymes

Prayers of the People & The Lord's Prayer Alex Lockridge

Hymn 439 Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory BATTLE HYMN

Commission & Blessing Alex Lockridge

*As we go from this place of worship, may we remember that we depend on God for everything:
the very air we breathe, God's strength that holds us together,
and for life in this community of Christ.
May God bind us together and send us out to proclaim the good news of God's kingdom. Amen.*

Organ Postlude God of Grace and God of Glory setting by Paul Manz

*Cure Thy children's warring madness; bend our pride to Thy control;
Shame our wanton, selfish gladness, rich in things and poor in soul.
Grant us wisdom, grant us courage, lest we miss Thy kingdom's goal.*
- Harry Emerson Fosdick
