This July, Alex will lead a four-week, intensive discussion series based on David Fitch's book, "The Church of Us vs. Them: Freedom from a Faith That Feeds on Making Enemies." If you would like to participate in this Wednesday Night Bible Study series, please RSVP by June 20 and state how many you are registering so that we can order enough books.

The reason for this series is obvious in today's culture. Each year, the state of our union becomes more polarized, and the church is contributing to the disunity. As Fitch writes, "We are indistinguishable from the world." The purpose of this four-week series is two-fold: 1. We must reclaim the Christian mandate of unity and learn to see each other as equals who are important to the Body of Christ. 2. We must lead our world forward by creating spaces that prove it is possible to have differences of opinion while still maintaining unity, civility, and teamwork.

Sign up at www.corbinfbc.org/study or call the office if you would like to participate in these four Wednesday night discussions in July.
If you cannot attend every week, that is okay! Sign up anyways!

Dear FBC Family,

Wow! Last Thursday was a great recipe for celebration. The evening served up a delicious meal, a heaping cup of sweet fellowship, and added a dash of humor. Thank you for the calls, cards, gifts, the cash gifts, and the many expressions of love and kindness. A shout out to all who worked to make it a special evening and for the deck chairs designed especially for retirement. We are truly blessed.

Yours in Christ,

Norman & Pamela Bradley

The family of Bill Hopkins would like to thank everyone who brought food, gave donations to our church and made visits to our home during Bill's illness: we thank you! May God bless each of you for your kindness! Natalie Hopkins, Guy & Mary Reed, and Holly H. Scoville

Thank you for the generous scholarship. I will strive to show the lessons that I have learned at FBC throughout my education.

Edward Garr

Thank you so much for the scholarship! I really appreciate it and will make my church family proud in August.
