Today We Remember
Maxine Rapier Asbridge &
Joyce Lawson Dizney

To explain how these two ladies worked together, you need to know their relationship: Maxine was an aunt to Joyce and a sister to Joyce’s mother.

Joyce was a daughter of Curt and Rushie Lawson, and had been a lifetime member of First Baptist Church. Her husband, Alan Dizney, was also a lifelong member. When Maxine and her first husband, C.S. Rapier, moved back to Corbin after retirement, they followed Maxine’s family members to First Baptist.

To become an active member of the community and a worker in the church, Maxine depended on Joyce. The drawback: Joyce didn’t drive! So, it became known that the two came as a team if either was called to a particular chore or position. Maxine drove, Joyce rode, and Joyce volunteered for the both of them.

Their favorite volunteer jobs dealt with the children of the church, especially VBS. They worked on their plans weeks in advance, but sometimes their plan went awry. One year they had a rather rambunctious group and almost quit midstream, but Maxine told Joyce they had to go back because those children needed VBS!

Maxine had a big heart when it came to children and the elderly. Christmas was a special time for Joyce and Maxine to team up and buy needed items for children and older adults. Maxine, who was constantly looking for ways to help others, would often remark to all at the table in a restaurant, “Our server needs a ‘good’ tip; he is a college student and needs the money.”

As a faithful team working in the church, they headed a bereavement committee, and always arranged for the necessary food, which they delivered to wherever it was needed. Delivering food to bereaved families was the way Maxine learned intricacies of the Corbin road system.

Often found in the church kitchen, Maxine, who was short in stature, was the official dishwasher, as the pre-remodel sink was too low for anyone else. Joyce, who also had kitchen duty any time there was a meal at church, was famous for her “purple salad.”

This team of aunt and niece showed their love for God in ways large and small, and they were an invaluable asset to this church and community.

God bless our Stained Glass Saints!

We hope you were able to continue to enjoy the lovely centerpiece flower arrangements from Paul’s retirement luncheon. Corbin Flower Shop graciously allowed FBC to borrow the vases. At this time, we need to collect those clear, square vases so we can return them to Corbin Flower Shop. At your earliest convenience, please return the vases to the church. Thank You!

Help send our kids to Church Camp!

Thank you so much for your generous contributions toward Summer Passport Camp in Berea. Our Youth will be attending in July (24-29). To help ease the financial burden for our kids, we are continuing to invite our church family to help financially sponsor a student. The approximate cost for one student to attend is $350.

If you are interested in sponsoring in part or in full, please contact Associate Pastor, Jeremiah Banks, for details on how to contribute!
