

Dear Church,

Our new website went live last week and can be accessed at www.corbinfbc.org. We are very excited about this new site, as we feel it well represents who we are as a community of faith. I encourage you to spend some time navigating the new site and reading up on the various happenings of our church. Meanwhile, I also encourage you to share the new site with friends and family members, letting them have a firsthand look at what our community of faith is all about.

Finally, please note that we as staff members have all received new email addresses corresponding to our new web address; thus, you can now reach us at:

Austin: acarty@corbinfbc.org

Paul: psims@corbinfbc.org

Alex: alockridge@corbinfbc.org

Pamela: pbradley@corbinfbc.org

Enjoy browsing the new site, and send us a note letting us know what you think!

All my love,
Austin

Special MUSIC

This Sunday we are privileged to host Dr. Elizabeth Packard Arnold and Zackery D. Morris, who will be leading us in worship - following the biblical admonition to "sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs" - with selections by J. S. Bach, Leonard Bernstein, and W.A. Mozart, and including the classic hymns, Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing and Great Is Thy Faithfulness.

Dr. Arnold, a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, is Associate Professor of Music and Director of Undergraduate Studies at the University of Kentucky. A member of the New Trinity Baroque Ensemble, she recently presented a recital at the International Franz Liszt Congress In Weimar, Germany. She and her family are members of First Presbyterian Church in Lexington, where she is a choir member and soloist.

Zack Morris is a graduate of Wingate University and the University of Kentucky, where he is a doctoral candidate and frequent performer in UK Opera Theater productions. Prior to moving to Kentucky, Zack was a Choral Scholar at First Baptist Church of Monroe, NC. In Lexington, he sings with the choir at First Presbyterian and the Kentucky Bach Choir.

We welcome Beth and Zack to Corbin, and to First Baptist Church.
