Today We Remember
Ora "Orie" Siler

He showed up on the first day of the Nibroc Rummage Sale- this was back in the mid-eighties when the sale ran for a full week- and was there to "help" for the remainder of the sale. The next Sunday he made his way to church, where he became an always-present participant in the Don Robinson class and in our worship service.

Born in Harlan County, Ora "Orie" Siler, while a toddler, suffered brain damage as the result of Scarlet fever. In spite of this challenge, Orie had worked in the coal mines of Eastern Kentucky, had been a veterinarian's assistant in Cincinnati, and had traveled to 48 states and 3 Canadian provinces with the circus (which he called "Ring, Bing and Bang'Em") before making his home in Corbin.

When we first encountered Orie, he was living in a boarding house just a few yards from church, where he had one room, a shared bath, and no kitchen privileges. It was a red-letter day when we were able to move him into Baptist Housing- his home for the next 15 years.

At one point, Orie, a severe diabetic who didn't follow doctor's orders, held the record at Baptist Health Corbin as the most-hospitalized person in the hospital's history. When in hospital, he liked to roam the hallways in his open-back hospital gown. When not in hospital, he would often be found in the church kitchen- no lights on-raiding the cookie stash, and was always looking for ways to sneak a little sugar into his diet.

Orie could always be counted on to provide a laugh- whether intended or not- through some action or comment (sometimes in the midst of a worship service). He was fiercely loyal to "his" kids (the youth group) and he was a beloved fixture at First Baptist Church until the end of his life.

Dear Church Family,

Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness during my sister's passing. We really appreciate those that came to the visitation and funeral, the cards, the gifts in her memory, and all the kind words and prayers. She would be so pleased that we are being treated so well. It is such an honor to be part of the First Baptist family. It makes such a big difference knowing many people care about us.

Thank you,
Debra Hammons Tipton

Receiving a beautiful stained glass replica of our church logo was an overwhelming and humbling surprise for me. Thank you; I will cherish this kind gift. Being a part of the music in worship has been a natural thing for me since childhood. Making music is a way of expressing love and praise for God and giving thanks for His love for us. It has been a privilege for me to be a part of the worship at First Baptist.

Besides the choir and musicians, however, there are so many people who help us come together as a congregation for worship and fellowship and then go out to show God's love- Sunday School teachers, nursery and children's volunteers, kitchen and cooking teams, those who visit and encourage, Food Pantry workers, and other leaders and volunteers. My contribution is only a tiny portion of what the whole church does. I Corinthians 12:5,7 says, "There are different kinds of service, but we serve the same Lord...A spiritual gift is given to each of us so we can help each other." NLT
