Interested in deepening your study of the Bible?

Ruth Bradley is going to launch another round of her Bible study class that aims to help you find new meaning and better understanding of ancient, holy words. She has much experience in reading Scripture, and she has a passion for helping bring to life the words of the Bible, no matter where you are on your personal faith journey. Ruth is currently gauging interest for this class. If you are interested, please contact her or sign up at worship this Sunday where signup sheets will be available.

Attention Elementary and Preschool Children- On Wednesday, 5/11 we will be taking a trip to the Corbin Public Library following Wednesday Evening Dinner! As a part of our reading initiative this month, we are encouraging kids to GROW in their love for reading the Bible (and other books too!). To help with this, our adult leaders will walk across the street with our kids at 6 pm for a tour of our local library, for fun activities, and to sign up for library cards. Come join us!

Graduation (and the end of another school year!) is almost upon us. Grades 6-12th are invited to come join us for a special Sunday Evening youth at Sandi & Bryan Curd's home from 5-7 pm on Sun, 5/15! We will have food, an open pool for swimming, yard games, and a time to relax and celebrate our graduates as well as the end of another school year! A courtesy call/text to Associate Pastor Jeremiah Banks is welcome to help get a headcount for food.

Also, for extra support and motivation, join the Facebook group at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/597219764218786>.

One donation opportunity we'd like you to consider is the FBC Community Missions, which is comprised of the White Flag, the Mustard Seed Garden, the Food Pantry, and other various ministries we do here.

Let's get healthy together and make an impact in our community!

Last Sunday, we honored and celebrated the life of Haskell Bolding, pastor at FBC from 1959 to 1969. In the conversations before and after the service and, of course, within the service, there was a consistent emphasis on Haskell's love for Jesus and people. He exuded the love of Christ to every person he met, and he is now remembered for that.

He would serve any person he could, and he would do so by any means necessary. No person was beneath Haskell; all were/are worthy of God's love and the service of God's people. As Haskell got older and wiser, he learned and, therefore, made his life about loving Jesus and nothing else. Loving Jesus was all that mattered.

As pastor at FBC, I am deeply honored to carry on Haskell's legacy of loving Jesus and loving others. During the service, I asked, "Is there anything greater that can be said about a man other than he displayed his humanity and he loved Jesus?" I don't think there is, and Haskell did both. I hope people will say that about me at my funeral one day.

As you pray this week, give thanks to God for our church and for people like Haskell who prepared the way for us. Also, pray for his family who continues to mourn him and who will try to live out his legacy with their remaining days. Consider your life and your legacy, and make your entire being about loving Jesus and loving people.

*In Christ,
Rev. Alex Lockridge*
