

Sunday, November 7, will be observed as All Saints' Sunday. As we have done in the past, we will light a candle for each member of the church we have lost in the last year. In addition to this, we invite you to consider your saints, the people you have lost in your lifetime. If there is someone you would like to honor and remember on that day, we invite you to bring a token or item to display during worship. We remember all the saints who have gone before us, who have enabled us to be here today, and who have shaped us in their time with us.

There shall be no more death,
neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be
any more pain:
for the former things
are passed away.

Call to Worship Alex Lockridge

*We gather to worship with the cloud of the faithful, to praise God with the saints of generations past.
Let us worship the One who swallows up death forever,
offering us the promise of life everlasting.*

Prayer of Confession Paul Sims

Response REMEMBRANCE

*Those who followed, those who led, those who planted, those who fed.
All who in myriad ways served the living Bread. REFRAIN
Those who spoke, and those who heard, those who labored undeterred.
All who in myriad ways held the holy Word. REFRAIN
Those who stood against the wrong, those who fell with spirits strong.
All who in myriad ways sang the triumph song. REFRAIN*
- C. David Matthews

Psalms 34 *LAND OF REST

*Unto the Lord my praise I sing, God's goodness ever bless;
The proud convictions of my soul speak of God's righteousness.
Come, magnify the Lord with me! Together bring God praise,
Whose presence overcomes all fear, and glory lights our days.
O taste and see, the Lord is good! How blest are they who place Reliance on God's steadfast love, and trust God's saving grace.
So great the trials of the just, yet greater is God's will,
That from the threat'ning chill of death God's truth redeems us still.*

Give Thanks to God

Litany of Thanksgiving Paul Sims

*Death is swallowed up forever – let us wipe away our tears.
We remember with thanksgiving all those who are dear to us.
Our ancestors in faith have laid the foundation for this day.
We remember with appreciation those who paved the way with their faith.
Teachers, leaders, grandparents, parents, children, siblings and friends.
We remember with gratitude God's gift of people.
The gifts of many people make us who we are.
We remember with love the people who blessed us with their lives.
God brings a new heaven and a new earth – let us live with great hope.*

The Remembrance of the Saints Alex Lockridge

Hymn Remembering with Love and Hope LAND OF REST

*Remembering with love and hope, we celebrate the feast.
Christ bids us come and dine with him, our Host and great High Priest.
God's Word made known in flesh and blood, a covenant of grace;
In manger, cross, and empty tomb, we see God's loving face.
Through all our lives, Lord, You are near, and to the end of time.
In bread and cup Yourself you give; our life in Yours we find.
We break the bread and bless the cup; Your Spirit is outpoured.
Made one in You, we feast in love until You come, O Lord.
We trust this pledge of Your strong love and pray, Your kingdom come,
When face to face we'll feast with You in our eternal home.*

Commission & Blessing Alex Lockridge & Jeremiah Banks

*Go from this place confident that your lives are safe in God.
Trust in the Lord, even in the face of death,
and follow in the footsteps of all God's saints.
And may God keep a protective eye on you;
May Christ Jesus show you grace and mercy;
and may the Holy Spirit give you a vision of God's world made new. Amen.*
