FIRST BAPTIST Church of Corbin

WHERE TRADITION & TOMORROW TOUCH HANDS

BUILDER

401 NORTH LAUREL AVENUE | CORBIN, KENTUCKY 40701 | (606) 528-4738

It has been a long, arduous journey over the past 20 months. We are all weary from change and news, and many are experiencing prolonged anxiety about all things related to this pandemic. These are okay. Your anxiety, your weariness, your desire for all of this to be over are all okay.

In this pandemic, we need to celebrate all good news. For a week now, our county has been out of the "red," as are the counties that surround us. Transmission of COVID in our area is waning and the recommendations from health experts change when transmission is not high.

Because of these changes in recommendations and as a result of the Church Council's decision a couple of months ago, we are removing the blue, social distancing tape from the sanctuary. We will continue to have a section in the sanctuary for those who wish to socially distance. This is a simple way to be hospitable to all types of people in this pandemic.

The last word I want to leave you with is this: be vigilant. All good news is needed and welcomed, but let's keep our eyes on the bigger picture. This pandemic is not over. We must continue to do our parts as individuals and as a worshipping congregation. As you think about your responsibility as a citizen and as a church member, be mindful of who Christ was and how he chose to live his life. Choose Christ in all your actions and all your words. Choose Christ. Then, be Christ.

"The Lord has dealt bountifully with me." Ps. 13:6. This is how Carolyn and I both feel after our recent illness. Through the generosity of many from our church family and the abundance of prayers, we both feel blessed, loved and cared for. First Baptist truly is the place to belong. "Now thanks be to God who always leads us in triumph in Christ." 2 Cor. 2:14
