All Committees Meeting - Sunday Evening

Our first quarterly Committees Meeting will take place, this Sunday evening, at 5:00 pm. Supper will be provided and we hope to have full participation from all standing committee members. We look forward to starting the new fiscal year in the right direction with help from our dedicated committee members. We will take time to discuss what the committees have accomplished, work that may still need to be completed, and new and/or innovative ideas to move forward. Your time is valuable and very much appreciated and by working together, FBC will be better served. See you Sunday evening! Alex
